This is a short indie game, it's free, it takes about an hour to finish and i think anyone who's bored should give it a try. Comes with a few achievements for those who collect achievements, has a few mini games inside, and yes it has ponies too, lacks the ability to save the game which can be annoying if you accidently skip a minigame or you have to leave, but for a casual 1 hour it's fine. I recommend it!

. Dark Shoes IV. A lovely adventure into a dream world.

Though not without its flaws (e.g. it feels almost inevitable that the player will end up brute forcing some item combinations or rooms), the peculiar environments and scenarios had me wanting more after it was all over.. A wondrous bullet hell. Very well polished.. Simple But Spooky !. Man i missed the old days of Fnaf. Fun game, although not a pure bullet hell. fun small game. Message to new players.

The respawns are SHARED for the whole team. Don't join a game and use up the respawns while somebody reviving you!!!! (i lost count of how many people gank respawns WHILE im healing them!) So if you're thinking about getting the game, you've BEEN WARNED to not look like a d*ckbag.

I max out my Healing and I revive people from death in 5 sec(?) don't waste them g*ddamn respawns! You cost us ALL the game and we lose our tanks that we've spent 3 hours building up. (or days) Someone with LVL 10 guns is just more valuable to respawn than some guy with LVL 1 guns. Simple.

I don't get any motion sickness at all. These people make me laugh. If you can handle EVE Valkyrie or Hover Junkers you can handle this no problem. (Play some No Limits 2 rollercoaster simulator or something stop being a p*ssy!) People act like it's like riding the SCRAMBLER at a carnival or something. it's NOT. (You guys gotta get those cold sweats out of your system!)

[[ If your family members can't play either, that's hereditary! Not the game's fault. ]]

THIS GAME reminds me of Cyber Sleds. Earth Defense Force. And Battleborn for some reason! (maybe it's the finale)

The graphics aren't as important as performance. (Game looks pretty amazing in scale.) Don't try to be cool and upscale if it isn't smooth. Do whatever it takes to run the game smooth as LIQUID!! (You don't wanna spin and see double vision of every building around you. A part of me thinks that's the reason people get motion sickness!!! They're too stubborn and want a nice Anti Alias. Stop doing that.)

Hold X on controller and kill the enemy with the "Blaster" (infinite ammo) and they will drop ammo!!!

I already love this game. I don't even remember Battlezone. You can play this game laying on a couch and hover around like Professor X.

Very well done retro dungeon crawler, with some city builder and exploration elements. Definately scratches an itch I've been craving. Great job!. Well quite simply one of the most addictive games I have played in my life....

There was a considerable amount of effort placed in this game and the author/scripter does a great job making imagination come to life.

Yeah....its a text game doesnt stop the game from being fun and running scenarios of what if?

Best wishes to the author you have me hooked keep up the good work

Regards Reaper. No comment is already a comment right? Lol. RPG Maker 2003 is great for those who don't know what Ruby / Java scripting is.

The only scripting that would happen would be eventing (because eventing is almost if not as powerful as Ruby / Java Script).

I rate this 8.5/10 - SammyCat Studio's

. I used to play this game when I was a kid. I remember almost every secret area, and know where almost all of the bad guys are. xD This game was and still is very fun. <3 If you like old school games, you will love this one. :3. Does not even start.. It's a clicker. But it's a clicker with a surprising amount of layers and pathways to success. The combat game breaks up the pacing nicely, and it's a lot of fun coming up with new fleets. I really enjoyed my time with the game.. Having played since the beta, I can say that the gameplay is very solid and addictive. It's easy to get the hang of it but a real challenge if you have a really determined friend as your adversary. I recommend it also because I'm an old school gamer who miss the good old "couch multiplayer" that we experienced growing up in the 80s and 90s with a console in the living room in front of a TV.
